Occupational Health Policy

05th January 2026

Mamo Building Services Ltd recognises and is committed to abide by the legislation to provide and maintain a safe healthy and comfortable work environment for its staff customers and other Visitors.
Mamo Building Services Ltd believes that a well-managed health and safety program is an integral part of good management practice.
Mamo Building Services Ltd has a comprehensive OH & S Policy.
Staff have an obligation to ensure that they are thoroughly familiar with its content It is strongly suggested that t the policy be carefully read and understood.

Mamo BuildingServices Ltd commitment to OH&S

In fulfilling its responsibilities Mamo Building Services Ltd will:

- Comply with all statutory rules and accepted codes and practices relating to health and safety
- Set short- and long-term goals and specific responsibilities in the management of health and safety
- Develop OH & S policies, procedures and guidelines
- Ensure all managers and supervisors understand and take responsibility for our health and safety process
- Provide information, instruction, training and supervision to ensure that staff are aware of safe work practices, emergency procedures and any risks to health and safety in their work environment which may affect them or others
- Consult with staff and OH & S representatives on issues relating to Health and Safety

Mamo Building Services Ltd will also ensure that management or its delegates have practical knowledge of and take responsibility for:

- Hazard Identification, risk assessment and risk control
- Health and Safety Legislation, regulations, and recognised standards
- Specific Health and Safety issues within the workplace
- Investigation of all diseases, injuries, near misses and accidents and formulate appropriate preventative actions to prevent a re-occurrence.
- Regularly monitor and review the implementation of and compliance with OH & S policies

Mamo Building Services Ltd is committed to providing:

- Safe equipment
- Working procedures
- Adequate ventilation and dust free environments
- Asbestos awareness and protection
- Safe Electrical connections
- Clear and unobstructed accesses
- Good facilities for the welfare of workers
- Ergonomic workstations
- Adequate kitchen facilities
- Suitable Risk assessments for young persons, vulnerable adults and pregnant women.

Joseph Mallon
Managing Director